JOSIAH TURNER, Jr., EDITOR.

LIFE—WHAT IS IT?

For six thousand years mankind have been endeavoring to answer this question. They have received and enjoyed the gift, and regarded it as the most precious that could be bestowed upon them, yet always without knowing what it is. Philosophers physiologists, metaphysicians have in turn attempted to solve the problem by the subtilties of logic, by scientific investigations, by meditation on the laws which regulate the existence and movements of the whole universe, but hitherto without striving at any satisfactory result. Disappointed ambition has pronounced it to be "a tale told by an idiot, full of sound and fury, signifying nothing." The first germ of life in the animal and vegetable kingdoms has nothing in shape or form indicating what it is to become; and when the vital principle quits its mortal residence it takes its departure silently, invisibly mysteriously, so that the point of time is often doubtful, though its absence begins soon to be felt by the icy chill which succeeds to the warmth and joyousness of life. Well may man denominate himself a microcosm, a little universe, for such he really is; and, to all intents and purposes, quite as unintelligible as the great one. When he first receives animation he is little more than an uniformed particle of matter; but no sooner does the divine spark enter Him than he displays motion and activity, and growth and development, and by degrees all the cells and chambers of the mind become filled with imagery, with living and palpitating ideas, eternal in their essence; each and all of them representing some portion, material or immaterial, of God's creation, and swelling, and expanding, till the interior of the new creation becomes a mirror, vast enough to reflect the entire universe without.

Well, therefore, may we exclaim: What is life? Go to the grassy grave and put the question there, and the worms, if they could speak, would answer—dust and ashes! But their answer would be false; what has been given up to their keeping is not and never was life. It held life, and was loved for what it held; but when it fell life soared away over the ruins to Him who gave it. It has been said that what exists in succession cannot be eternal. we exist in succession; that is, are older to-day than we were yesterday, and therefore are not eternal. But does this imply that we shall ever cease to live? Far from it: the spirits which come forth from God cannot die—they are immortal; but God only is eternal, because He had no beginning, and can have no end; and for Him, therefore, time has no existence. He does not grow older or wiser or greater or less; all perfection is contained in Him. He is the wellspring of life to Himself and to everything else which exists, if the being of other things can be truly called existence when compared with His.

To exist in the language from which the the word springs, signifies to stand out, to possess a distinct and separate being, and thus to constitute a palpable contrast with nothingness. But in this world at least, man walketh in a vain shadow, and disquieteth himself in vain; perhaps because he has not as yet passed the threshold of life, and only looks from mist and twilight upon its real sublime dwelling-place.

[From the New York Times.]

GULF STREAM METEOROLOGY.

Few subjects have of late excited more attention from scientific men than the Gulf Stream, and its effects on our meteorology. Last Winter in England was most remarkable for its vernal and balmy mildness. But at the very season when the Gulf Stream was exerting the most unusual and paramount influence in mitigating the climate of the Isles, the Royal Geographical Society was debating whether it is a myth. Facts, however, are stubborn things, and it would be hard for the Royal Society, by its unanimous verdict, to throw any suspicion over the existence or the potency of this great "river in the ocean."

The Journal of the Scottish Meteorological Society, compiled from numberless observations, states that "one may travel from Land's End on the forty eighth parallel of north latitude to John O'Groat's house, on the fifty-eighth parallel, without coming to a single place with an average temperature below 89 deg." Common sense would seem to demonstrate that, in a country as far north as Labrador, only by such an agency as the hot water of the great equatorial current could such a pleasant and salubrious climate be preserved. Ever since Benjamin Franklin's day it has been known that, but for this tide rolling its blue and smoking waters to Western Europe, the shores of that continent would be more or less icebound. St. John's Harbor, Nova Scotia, according to Colonel Sabine, has been locked in the grip of the Frost King as late in the year as June. But the harbor of Hammerfest, on the northern coast of Norway, and within the Arctic Circle, latitude 72 deg. has at no recorded time ever been closed to shipping. Only fourteen times in eight hundred years has the River Thames been frozen over. And, what is of equal significance, our highest geographical authorities tell us that our Western coast is filled by the recurvation of the great equatorial current of the Pacific Ocean, strikingly resembles Northwestern Europe. Even Alaska, in nearly the same latitude with the British Islands, is clothed like Ireland, and by a similar agency, with a mantle of green. Our experience here in New York may be worth something. For many weeks we have been experiencing just such weather as our transatlantic friends had last year. Our prevailing winds for the Winter have always been from the land, and we have always shivered under them. During the genial spell we have been passing through, the winds have blown from the sea, with warm rains, and, according to the views of an eminent meteorologist, may be regarded as the upper or return current of the trade winds from the tropics.

THE MIND IS THE MAN.—The mind is the man. The body is simply the instrument through which the mind manifests itself while on earth. The mind is manifested through forty or more organs. Each is primary and independent in its function, doing its own work and not doing the work of any other. Each of these powers is manifested only through a particular organ or portion of the brain. The power of each organ, all other things being equal, is in exact proportion the size and quality of that portion of the brain through which it is manifested. The mental powers are possessed originally in different degrees by different individuals, and also by the same individual. One possesses ten talents, another five, another one. Each mental power grows stronger and becomes more skillful by proper exercise. Our accountability is just in proportion as we make a good or bad use of these talents. Each mental power was created for the purpose of doing good, and was intended to be properly used.

KEROSENE LIGHTS PERFECTED!

DANFORD'S

Atmospheric

KEROSENE LAMP.

THE ONLY PERFECTLY SAFE LAMP IN USE.

Artificial Light, of some sort, is a universal necessity; a safe, cheap, and brilliant one is a luxury; a luxury, too, only enjoyed heretofore by those living in large towns or cities where Gas is used. Tens of millions and thousands of dollars annually have been spent by experiments of different kinds, in trying to invent and perfect a Burner or Lamp by which Coal Oil or Kerosene could be burned practically, without the expense and trouble or chimneys; this long looked for and much desired subject has at last been obtained, and is styled the

ATMOSPHERIC KEROSENE LAMP!

Its adaptation to Dwellings, Churches, Railroads, Steamboats, Hotels, Stores, &c., is unsurpassed. In short, this invention obliges the luxurious and brilliant Gas Light within the reach of all, whether in the City or Country. It gives the light of a six-foot Gas Burner, for less than one cent per hour, or double the quantity of light, of the ordinary chimney-lamp with one third less oil; will burn, when turned down to a taper light ten hours for one cent; is free from smoke or smell, can be carried from room to room; the wind will not blow it out.

This Lamp is destined to supersede all portable artificial light or chimney lamps now in use, and needs only to be seen to be appreciated; thousand of them will find ready sale in every county, no family that sees this light for one evening will again be annoyed with the chimney-lamps. Thousands of them will be used in cities, as this light is one-half cheaper than Coal Gas, and much more pleasant to the eye.

The sole right for the sale of this Lamp can be had for the entire State or the same will be sold by Counties.

Parties purchasing will be supplied, at wholesale, with the lamp and Burners at reasonable rates.

Immediate application should be made to secure the choice of Counties.

The Lamp can be seen in full operation burning the day and evening at the Yarbrough House.

All letters will receive prompt attention and full explanation of the Lamp given.

A SOLEMN APPEAL.

We make a solemn call upon the "hands" without regard to "race, color, or previous condition," to rise to the dignity of the occasion and vindicate their honor, by showing some sign of those generous and patriotic sentiments which prevailed in North Carolina, and actuated North Carolina Representatives, before the accursed rule of Holden, aided by carpet bag stragglers.

Hands! All hands! white hands and colored hands! Honest hands and roguish hands! Sober or drunken; educated or uneducated; hands that got gold watches and chains and horses and hotel bills from Littlefield, and hands that didn't get them; hands mounted and hands a-foot! We say, rise and vindicate your honor; show that you can serve your country, and, if need be, can die for your country.

Hands, heretofore your lives and services seem to have been devoted only to the advancement of private interests and "Ring" monopoly, resulting in the ruin and dishonor of the State. Hands, this should not be so; if there be one among you who cannot elevate his groveling soul to the dignity of a Representative of the people and act for the welfare of the State—one who cannot show some sign of life above mere animal, sensual, selfish existence, such, as exhibited by so many oxen or asses who are influenced only by the rattle of shucks or hay in the manger, then let such a one draw his greenbacks—take out an insurance on his worthless life for the benefit of some benevolent society, reserving enough to purchase a rope with which to hang himself.

We hope, Hands, you do not look upon yourselves as so many oxen or asses, sent up here to the capital to be pastured and stall fed and curried and rubbed and carried at the expense of the people, merely for your fat or looks! If not, then we say to you sir, rise to the dignity of Representatives and Legislators; waste no more time in windy harangues; waste no more time in vain attempts to shelter and protect rogues and rascals, whom you may have inadvertently aided in robbing the Treasury, swindling the people and ruining the credit of the State. If there be virtue in you, if you have nerve to defy those who would make tools of you for their own emolument, or to hide their former peculations, now is the time to show it; or, mark it! you will forever hereafter be classed with the offenders themselves, and share their fate.

Did you never read, Hands, that "there is a time when great States rush to ruin." That time is now upon this State. North Carolina is, now, no more like the North Carolina of former days, than Chicken Stephens is like Bartlett Yancey, or Cuffey Mayo is like Judge Gilliam. The North Carolina, served, loved and honored by Gaston, Nash, Badger, Swain and Ruffin, is the same North Carolina no more.—She is now the "hog trough" of the Union, where Littlefield, Deweese, Lafin, Tourgee, Heaton, Ashley, Brewer and Abbott, and such swine, come to wallow with native hogs like Holden, Victor and Greasy Sam.

Hands, we have old men, experienced Statesmen, such as Graham, Bragg, and many others, who have served and honored the State, from their youth up. North Carolina is their mother and their home.—They have seen her wasted by fire and sword, and betrayed by her own degenerate sons in copartnership with carpet baggers and vagabonds. Hands, you and your Congress deny them their birthright of citizenship; these aliens in their own State, as you have made and would still keep them, have a weight and force, moral and intellectual, which, in the estimation of the people, would outweigh every hog in your trough, native or imported.

Hands, remember what the Grand Jury of Wake said of you; they presented Littlefield for attempting to bribe you with whiskey and money. Remember what Sinclair, that saintly sinner, or sinful saint, and leader of the hands in the House, said—that he was posted, and knew that members were bribed. Remember, what Galloway, your leader in the Senate said—that Senators had been clothed and fed by Littlefield.

Senators are clothed and fed by Littlefield; Littlefield is clothed and fed by the Governor, who made him State Printer and President of a Railroad. Who feeds and clothes the Governor?

Hands, remember, all the rogues and rascals and plunderers have not suddenly become honest, nor have they all run away.—It is said that one of your body has been offered $2,500 for his vote in favor of the sale of the N. C. Railroad. That scheme is not yet abandoned, and you will be called on to act with regard to it the very first time there appears an opportunity to run it through.

Remember, finally, O Hands, that the ills we suffer; the burdens we bear; the financial crisis that has come upon us; the heavy taxes and the heavy debt, all are attributable to you; you took the reins of government into your hands in 1868 with money in the Treasury; now it is empty and you are nearly three hundred thousand dollars in debt, with nearly a year ahead unprovided for. You have no schools worth the name, and, remember your Treasurer recommends using the school funds and postponing the schools for the present!

You have betrayed the people; wasted their money and their substance; beggared them at home and ruined their credit abroad; you have pushed them to the verge of desperation, they will be pushed no further.

Go! Repent; put sack cloth upon your loins and ashes upon your heads, and bring forth fruits meet for repentance, lest a worse thing come upon you.

PITT COUNTY.

This County is cursed of carpet-baggers; it had a carpet bag Senator, (Rich;) a carpet bag member, Prince Laflin; a carpet bag Sheriff, John Foley; a carpet bag Deputy Sheriff and Collector, one Thompson; Ed. Smith, carpet bagger, is County Treasurer, Charles Smith, Ed.'s brother, is the carpet bag Chairman of the Board of Commissioners. One Willard, a carpet bagger from Massachusetts, is acting Register for his son in law, Dr. Jones, who is nominally the Register. Rev. C. C. Stilley is Holden's carpet bag J. P. for this County.

This pious scoundrel, Stilley, is son-in-law of old Hunnicutt, of Virginia. Recently he owned two stores, one grog shop, a newspaper, and a hotel, and was acting Squire for Holden, and could find time to preach and act as U. S. Assessor. The Governor ought to send him assistance in the person of that pious man, Sinclair.

In course of time Sinclair has run all of those offices, except that of hotel keeper. He can fill Stilley's place exactly. He could fill his pulpit and preach that sermon on "family religion."

Let us see how Holden's, carpet-bag "causes" have brought the people of Pitt to grief. John Foley is defaulter as Sheriff of Pitt. There is a judgment against him and his securities in Wake Court for $7,000; his securities are Laflin (the loud langung), Rich, and others. Execution was issued upon the judgment and the Coroner returned, "nothing to be found to satisfy this execution, over and above the homestead exemption."

Thompson came to Raleigh to make returns of taxes to Treasurer Dave; he writes to a newspaper and tells the good people of Pitt he will not return to the county, because he loaned Sheriff Foley a portion of the tax money for private use, and the Sheriff cannot, or will not, return it.—Thompson says he paid Ed. Smith, County Treasurer, $7,000 in county claims and $2,000 in cash. Ed. Smith says he received no money at all.

Thompson gave bond for $10,000, as Collector; he collected $25,000, but the carpet bag official, whose duty it was to keep the bond, says Thompson's bond disappeared from the safe about the time Thompson departed from the county.

The people of Pitt know nothing of their county expenses, except that they are enormous. Ed. Smith's brother, Charles, the Chairman of the Board of Commissioners, has not yet seen fit to make return and statement of county matters and finances.

If the people of Pitt will take Maj. Smith's physic for the carpet bag griefs which afflict them, they will soon recover. Major Smith, President of the North Carolina Railroad, turned off section masters and laborers on the Railroad who voted the Conservative ticket. If Pitt county had one man of Major Smith's determination, we think the carpet baggers would soon be voted out of office. Rich, the late carpet bag Senator, said he would feed no negro and give him the means of living, and then allow him to vote against the Republican party. It is a poor rule that don't work both ways.

Oh the curse of this Holden, carpet bag pestilence!

The Legislature of North Carolina.

SENATE.

FRIDAY, Feb. 18, 1870.

The Senate was called to order at 10 o'clock.

BILLS INTRODUCED.

By Mr. Richardson: Bill to authorize the County Commissioners of Moore, to levy a special tax not to exceed $7,000; referred.

By Mr. Richardson: Bill to incorporate the Cagle Mining and Manufacturing Co.; referred.

By Mr. Legg: Bill to authorize J. A. Taylor, to construct a bridge across Brunswick River; referred.

By Mr. Stephens: Bill to legalize certain Township elections; referred.

By Mr. Jones, of Wake: Bill to amend the charter of the city of Raleigh; referred.

By Mr. Blythe: Resolution to raise a Committee to examine the Calendar and report the most important bills in order to act on them first, lies over.

By Mr. Welker: Resolution declaratory of the sentiments of the General Assembly in reference to certain matters. Some of the provisions of these resolutions are as follows:

The General Assembly disavow all complicity in the destruction of the credit of the State, or in the misapplication of its securities.

They deprecate the fearful effects of all bitter and incendiary newspapers and public or private speeches.

The General Assembly endorses the Administration of President Grant.

The General Assembly accept the results of the war; support the present Constitution of the State, as just, liberal and wise—and pledge themselves to award and guarantee to the colored man every civil right—every privilege of education, and the same protection of equality before the law, which is awarded to the white man; that no act of theirs shall deprive him of these justly acquired rights that are confirmed to him by the reconstruction acts, and the amendment to the Constitution.

The General Assembly recommend to the people, the selection and support of such men to office as are now true to the Union, loyal to the Constitution, and, as will commend themselves to the judgment of patriotic and good men, who will give character to the government, credit to its Legislature and inspire confidence in their integrity; and to this purpose they invite the co-operation of all considerate and true men, so that those who love the "Old North State," who are "unselfish and patriotic," may stand together in her redemption and restoration.

The General Assembly have in the present, and will in the future, preserve a "liberal" and conciliatory policy, &c.

Mr. Welker moved to suspend the rules in order to put the resolution on its passage.

Mr. Love moved to amend the motion by taking up, also, his resolution of enquiry, in reference to Engrossing Clerks, which prevailed and the rules were suspended.

Mr. Robbins moved to act on the resolutions seratim, which was voted down.

Mr. Jones of Mecklenburg, said:

I deprecate and protest against the effort which is being made through these resolutions to coerce Senators on this floor to the endorsement of men and measures of which they cannot approve by coupling them with measures and abstract propositions, of which all good men necessarily approve, and by forcing a vote upon the resolutions as a whole instead of submitting them to the Senate by sections.

Now, Mr. President, I am by no means adverse to many of the sentiments expressed in these resolutions and am rather desirous of giving a public and official declaration of my opinion on these subjects, but there are declarations contained in these resolutions of which I most decidedly disapprove, and which were so cunningly included for the purpose of forcing Conservative Senators into a false position. Now Mr. President, I will not stop to discuss these resolutions in detail, but will just say that they contain one declaration, which, of itself, is sufficient to secure my opposition to them. You propose that I should endorse the administration of President Grant, or in refusing to do so you propose to force me into the apparent position of opposing the school system in North Carolina. Mr. President, I care not for these futile attempts to misrepresent me—I shall vote against these resolutions because they contain declarations of which, I do not approve. If that repudiates sentiments and declarations of which I approve and which you desire to have endorsed by this Legislature, the fault is yours, not mine. You commingle a mass of incongruous and dissimilar matters and ask me to accept the assertions as a whole.

Now, Mr. President, I cannot endorse the course of President Grant, in relation to the State of Georgia, and the Senator from Guilford well knew, when he introduced these resolutions, that the Conservatives on this floor had long ago committed themselves against the legality and constitutionality of all such interference with the internal affairs of a State, and I can only regard this as an effort, to secure the endorsement of an outrage, by tacking it on to meritorious and unobjectionable principles and declarations. When Congress accepted the Constitution of the State of Georgia, and admitted certain of her members to seats on the floor of the House of Representatives, it was an admission on their part, that that State was fully restored to all its rights in the Federal Union other it could be no such anomaly as a State half way in the Union and half way out; if Georgia was in the Union, then she has as much right there as Massachusetts or New York, and was permanently there, and the conduct of Congress endorsed by President Grant, in remitting that State to a territorial condition, unseating its Governor and turning its Legislature out of doors, supplanting both with a military government under the administration of the bayonet, was a high handed usurpation, a tyranical use of mere physical force, and indefensible either in law or morals. If Congress had the right to dismantle the government of Georgia for one cause it may quote the precedent on North Carolina and destroy our Government whenever we administer it in a manner which they deem objectionable. If they can sit in judgment on a state after the lapse of twelve months they may do so one hundred years from this time and we shall not soon see the end of this Federal domination. The Constitution of Georgia contains ample provision for the protection of the liberties and privileges of its citizens through its courts and upon matters not affecting its relations with the Federal Government but appertaining solely to the relation of its citizen to the State Government the last appeal was to the State Courts and not to Congress. For this reason Mr. President, not to mention others I am constrained to vote against these resolutions. I oppose some things that have been done by the present Federal administration, but not all of them, and I now give notice of my intention to protest against the refusal of the Senate to submit these resolutions to a vote by section, and I will say to the Senator from Guilford that a few years more of reconstruction experience will convince him of its utter folly and its pernicious character.

Mr. Smith of Wilkes said:

I did not expect that democratic Senators on this floor would support these resolutions, they can always find some objection to the best measures. They were not satisfied with opinions but young men turn prophets, for one I do not regard their prophecies as of much importance, it is all a matter of party.

Mr. Jones, of Mecklenburg, said:

MR. PRESIDENT:—I think it comes with a bad grace from the Senator from Wilkes, to accuse me of partizanship, when it is a notorious fact, that he can see no subject in any other light, and as for his reference to my age, I will only say that gray hairs are not always a guaranty of wisdom, had it been, his party might have avoided many, many blunders that are daily contributing to its ruin. I will tell him an anecdote of an old negro employed, on one occasion, by a very penurious man, to do a day's work for him. When the work was done the employer proposed to pay him with a drink of whiskey, assuring the darkey that it was sixteen years old. The drink offered was remarkably small, and the old negro, after swallowing, said to him, "Massa, how old did you say dat whiskey is?" "Sixteen years old sir." "Den, I gist got dis to say of him, dat he be werry small for he age."

Mr. Robbins said he desired to enter his protest on the journal against the action of the Senate in refusing to allow the resolutions to be considered and voted upon separately. On account of that action he should decline to vote on the resolutions at all, because he approved the greater portion of them, and, therefore, could not vote nay, and he disapproved some points in them, and, therefore, could not vote yea. Since, therefore, he was not allowed to vote his true sentiments by voting on each resolution separately, and a vote either yea or nay would fail to reflect his true position on them, he should decline to vote, and he would state his position in full in his protest.

J. A. Hyman, col., moved to amend the resolution endorsing the administration of President Grant, by including, "and that of Gov. Holden," subsequently, at the suggestion of Senators, withdrew it.

Mr. Blythe offered the following amendment:

Provided, That nothing in these resolutions shall be so construed as to indicate our approval of all the features in our present State Constitution, nor pledge ourselves against any further efforts to revise it in a prudent and Constitutional manner, speedily, by request, withdrew it.

Mr. Cook moved to amend the sixth resolution: Providing, That nothing in the resolutions shall be construed as approving the action of the administration in relation to the struggling patriotic Cubans, subsequently, by request, withdrew it.

Messrs. Brogden, Shoffner and Welker, followed in support of the resolutions.

Mr. Graham said:

I understand that these resolutions propose to endorse the administration of Gen. Grant. I do not know the necessity of this unless you think that he will be puzzled to offer any explanation of your conduct, in repealing the acts making appropriations to Rail Roads. You are afraid that he will think you have been guilty of repudiation. I suppose you mean to say that your extravagant reckless appropriations have brought you into adverse circumstances, and that you are apparently in opposition to his policy, but that at best you are all right. The people require you to go back on your acts. I suppose that all those who have been appointed to office specially endorse that part of his administration, and I suppose who are anxious for office will endorse any appointment of theirs here after made and I think you acknowledge that you are badly scattered here, you still renew your promise to march forward in the support of his administration with the firm and steady tread of a Jackson to a bundle of oats. But do you think that Gen. Grant will believe you. I give him notice to look out for a repeal of these resolutions before you adjourn; to place no confidence in your promises of support. It makes very little difference whether you endorse him. Grant or not.—The people of North Carolina do not endorse you, and will hold you responsible for the useless waste of time consumed in this discussion.

Mr. Love said he should not hesitate a moment in voting against the resolutions. He regarded them as mere paper wads not worth the time expended in writing them. They were introduced for party effect, but they rather over stepped the mark. There were some of the resolutions he was willing to endorse, but there were others he would not endorse, consequently, he should vote against the whole batch, as he was not allowed to vote on them separately.

The seventh resolution has a clause pledging the General Assembly to "support the Constitution of the State, as just, liberal and wise."

Mr. Beall moved to strike out all after the word State.

The previous question was called and sustained, and Mr. Beall's amendment was voted down by the following vote:

AYES.—Messrs. Barnes, Beall, Cherry, Graham, Jones, of Mecklenburg, Long, Love, Martindale, Melchor, Murphy, Richardson, Robbins, Scott and Whiteside—14.

NAYS.—Messrs. Bellamy, Brogden, Burns, Colgrove, Cook, Davis, Eppes, col. Forkner, Galloway, col., Hayes, Harrington, Hyman, col., Hawkins, Jones, of Wake, Lassiter, Legg, Lupton, Sloan, Sheffner, Smith, Stephens, Welker, White and Winstead—23.

The resolutions were adopted by the following vote:

YEAS.—Messrs. Bellamy, Brogden, Burns, Cherry, Colgrove, Cook, Davis, Eppes, col., Forkner, Galloway col., Hayes, Harrington, Hyman, col., Hawkins, Jones of Wake, Lassiter, Legg, Lupton, Martindale, Reisses, Sheffner, Smith, Stephens, Welker, White and Winstead—26.

NAYS.—Messrs. Barnes, Beall, Graham, Jones of Mecklenburg, Love, Melchor, Murphy, Scott, Whiteside and Wilson—10.

Mr. Love's resolution of inquiry in relation to engrossing clerks was then taken up.

Mr. Shoffner offered an amendment which the Chair ruled out of order.

Mr. Davis opposed the resolution, thought it would accomplish nothing, he was opposed to sending Committees of every character and moved to lay it on the table.

Mr. Love said the Senator from Montgomery was disposed to ridicule, and treat these resolutions lightly, but he would assure the Senate that they were necessary, and if he were placed on the Committee he would show them where $2,000 had been drawn by one of those officers, (he would call no name) that the State had not received a stamp of his finger for.

The motion to table was voted down.

Those who voted for it, are Messrs. Davis, and Hyman, (col.)

Mr. Bellamy moved to amend the resolution by instructing the Committee to inquire also and report, what members of the General Assembly have charged, and received, mileage for coming, a round about way to the Legislature, which was unanimously adopted.

The resolution passed. The Chair designated Messrs. Love and Davis, as the Senate branch of the Committee.

By Mr. Jones, of Mecklenburg: Resolution in favor of Sheriff of Watauga county. Referred.

On motion of Mr. Martindale, the rules were suspended, and the bill to authorize the Williamston & Tarboro Railroad Co. to issue 1st mortgage bonds, was taken up, and allowed to pass its second reading without discussion.

On motion, the Senate adjourned.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

FRIDAY, Feb. 18th 1870.

House called to order at the usual hour.

Leave of absence was granted to Messrs. Durham, Bowman, Pou, Williams of Sampson, Kinsey and Seymour.

On motion of Mr. Ellis, the rules were suspended and the bill to authorize the Commissioners of Catawba County to sell lots, was taken up and passed its several readings.

On motion of Mr. Hodgin, the rules were suspended and the bill to levy a special tax for the support of the Insane Asylum and the Deaf, Dumb and Blind Institution, was taken up, when,

The unfinished business was announced and considered, to wit,

The bill (Senate) to repeal acts passed by the General Assembly Session 1868 69 making appropriations to certain Railroad Companies.

The question recurred upon Mr. Malone's substitute, (published when the matter was last debated.)

Mr. Malone took the floor in support of the substitute and spoke some length. He characterized the original bill as a measure of bad faith in before which would bring ruin and prostration upon the State.

Mr. Ingram favored the substitute and opposed the original bill.

The following message was received from the Governor, which was read:

GENTLEMEN:—I deem it my duty to invite your special attention to the necessity which exists for supplying funds to the Insane Asylum and to the Institution for the Deaf, Dumb and Blind.

The supplies of provisions and clothing for the Insane are nearly exhausted, and the Treasurer of the Asylum is without means for its support. It will be impracticable, without speedy relief from the State Treasury, to provide for the wants of the patients.

There are now in the Institution for the Deaf, Dumb and Blind, 179 pupils, all of whom are supported by the State.

The fiscal year of that Institution commenced on the 1st of July, 1869. Since that time the Treasurer of the Institution has received from the State Treasury only $8 715,50. The Institution is now in debt for supplies of food and clothing and other necessary expenses, to the amount of $10,000. The State Treasury is not only empty, but is in debt to the Common School fund; and the State Treasury is, therefore, unable to meet the wants of these Institutions under existing appropriations. If speedy relief is not extended to the Institution of the Deaf and Dumb and Blind, the Directors may be forced to suspend the operations of the Institution.

The Commissioners for the location and construction of the Penitentiary are also in need of funds. There are about 130 convicts in the Penitentiary, and it is believed it would be sound economy to increase the number to 200 as this would relieve the counties of the burden of keeping convicts in jail.

I earnestly recommend that your honorable body make adequate provision for the Insane Asylum, for the Institution of the Deaf and Dumb and Blind and for the Penitentiary.

I have the honor to be, gentlemen

With great respect,

W. W. HOLDEN, Governor.

The debate upon the bill repealing Railroad appropriations was resumed.

Mr. Sinclair took the floor in opposition to the substitute in support of the bill.

Mr. Jarvis occupied the floor in advocacy of the bill as it came from the Senate, and was opposed to all substitutes and amendments.

Mr. Seymour was in favor of the substitute and opposed the bill.

He moved to postpone the whole matter until next Tuesday morning. The yeas and nays were called and the motion was rejected by a vote of yeas 35 nays 44.

Mr. Pou argued for some time in favor of the original bill.

Mr. Moore of Chowan made a lengthy argument against the original bill.

He moved that the consideration of the matter under debate be postponed until Monday next.

Harris of Wake, col. favored the postponement.

Pending any definite action the House adjourned.

No Life Insurance Company in the United States offers superior advantages for insurance or investment, than the St. Louis Mutual. It is managed by gentlemen of the highest capacity and standing and it enjoys the largest confidence of those acquainted with Insurance Companies.

Its Policies are liberal; its premiums moderate and made easy; its losses are paid promptly; and its investments are made on the most solid basis, being principally in improved real estate worth twice the amount invested, paying ten per cent per annum.

All its Policies are non-forfeitable and all participate in profits from the beginning.

Dividends declared and applied annually to policy holders on the contribution plan.

The Company is strictly Mutual, and the profits of its business are paid not to stockholders but to its policy holders.

An equitable surrender value paid to all who through misfortune are unable to keep up their policies.

This article is much superior to the Peruvian Guano as a fertilizer. It contains a much larger percentage of bone phosphate and Soda, and nearly as much Ammonia, its effects upon the land will be seen for years.

The following extracts from certificates received from those who used it last year upon Cotton will have the effect to remove the prejudice produced by the use of manufactured fertilizers, and give confidence in this home made article.

H. Leberman, Esq., of Bertie county N. C., writes: "I have used your Phosphate Fish Guano in equal quantities side by side with Peruvian Guano and found the product much in favor of your article, the weed was larger, Cotton heavier and the plant kept green through the dry Summer.

J. J. Horton of same State, writes to the same import. Our Circular for January 1870, contains these and other certificates in full.

THE SENTINEL.

CITY AND STATE ITEMS.

SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 19, 1870.

☞ THEO. N. RAMSAY, as Business Clerk, is authorized to make contracts and give receipts, &c., &c.

Read the New Advertisements which appear this morning.

RELIGIOUS.—Rt. Rev. Thomas Atkinson, D. D., Bishop of the Diocese of North Carolina, will preach in Christ Church in this City, to-morrow and administer the rite of confirmation.

DIVIDEND.—We learn that the Directors of the N. C. Railroad Company, at their meeting on Tuesday last, in this City, declared a dividend of 6 per cent., to be paid in cash, one-half on the first of April, and one-half on the first of July, next.

SAUSAGE.—According to order, that two pounds of sausage from Bromell made its appearance, and is, if possible, better than the last. Families desiring regular supplies, can, by leaving their orders with Mr. Bromell, have sausage left at their houses at the same price that is charged in market.

THE D. & D., AND B. INSTITUTION.—We could not be present at the exhibition of the colored department at the Deaf and Dumb and the Blind Institution, on Thursday evening, but sent the "Commodore," who reported the singing of the Blind and exercises by the Deaf and Dumb, as exhibiting great progress under the instruction of their respective teachers.

This Department of the Institution is separate from that of the whites, but is under the direction and supervision of the Principal, W. J. Palmer, Esq. The Blind are under the instruction of a daughter of Oscar Alston, formerly of Wake. She is a very accomplished and competent teacher. The instructor of the Deaf and Dumb is a Deaf mute, whose name we do not remember.

Those present speak of the exhibition as showing a gratifying progress of the pupils, as well as qualification on the part of the teachers.

WYMAN, continues to have large houses at Tucker Hall. Many of those who have visited the Hall have drawn valuable prizes. We got a ten-dollar meerschaum pipe on Thursday night, and our "sub" got twenty dollars in greenbacks. Wyman gives a matinee exhibition for families to-day at 2 o'clock, P. M., when every ticket draws a prize. Regular exhibition again to night.

SPECIFIC FOR DYSPEPSIA.—A one legged farmer, in our adjacent county, renews his subscription to our Semi-Weekly, and says he is obliged to have it, for without it his dyspepsia, with which he is sometimes pestered, gets worse. When it fails, everything goes wrong—the chickens get in the garden, his oats don't come up, and his clover has a bad stand. Our friend says, if he can keep a good supply of the SENTINEL on hand he expects to make a good crop of cotton this year.

We hope that all who is troubled with dyspepsia, unruly chickens, bad stand of oats or clover, or other social, political, agricultural or domestic evils, will try the receipt of our friend in Franklin. We think they will receive great benefit from it.

HARD ON THE RADICAL LEGISLATURE.—A writer in the Standard over the signature of "Far Away," comes down heavy, though rather left-handedly, on the Radical Legislature for voting themselves seven dollars per day and twenty cents a mile for travel. The writer, whom we take to be Farriss, represented, perhaps, by proxy, took good pains not to answer "Contingencies" in regard to what became of the hay! Now, we do think, if Farriss used or sold that hay, which the State paid for raising, he ought to have paid for cutting it; we put it to any farmer in the State, to say if he hadn't ought to.

We request an opinion from the Attorney General, as to whether, 1st, "Far-Away" has answered "Contingencies," and 2nd, whether Farriss ought not to have paid for cutting the hay, if he used or sold it.

A FAITHFUL FRIEND.—The best subscriber the SENTINEL has, is a plain, unpretending gentleman, of Frank'n county, who, last year, subscribed for ten copies, and has recently renewed his subscription for the same number. When asked why he subscribed for so many copies, he replied, "It does me good to hand them out to my neighbors."

If each of our subscribers would exercise a little of the spirit of this one, by speaking to their neighbors on the subject, and using their influence to get them to subscribe, our lists might be doubled in a short time. We would be pleased for some or all of them to try it. The summer campaign will soon open, and the people ought to be informed in regard to the questions at issue. Send in the names and money.

MURDER IN JOHNSTON.—We learn that Mr. Miles Draughon, of Johnston county, was shot by some unknown person, on the night of the 14th inst. He was at the house of a young man in the neighborhood who was from home, and Mr. Draughon was staying there during the night, having arrived after the young man had left to go to his father's. On his return, on the morning of the 15th, the young man whose name we did not learn, found Draughon on the bed, with two wounds in the forehead, made by the discharge of a double barreled gun, as is supposed. The motive for the murder was, doubtless, to obtain some $700 the murdered man had in his possession. An inquest was held but no clue to the murderer obtained.

TO BUSINESS MEN.—We have received a neat little pamphlet entitled, "The Talesman of Business Success," published by W. H. Bixler, of the "Easton Daily Press," Easton, Pa. It is a useful little book, and every merchant or trader, especially those just starting out in business, and can be procured by writing to the above address. The price we suppose does not exceed 25 cents.

SUPREME COURT.

[Reported expressly for the SENTINEL by the Deputy Clerk of the Supreme Court.]

Friday Feb. 18.—Court assembled at the usual hour.

The cases of Sloan vs. Harriss, was argued.

The whole morning was taken up with the arguments in these cases.

Arguments were delivered by the Attorney General, Phillips and Kemp P. Battle, for the Governor; and Bragg, York, Bailey and V. C. Barringer for Harriss.

The questions involved in these important and interesting cases, have been argued with great ability, learning and earnestness.

There are but few cases remaining on the docket, from the 6th District. After they have been called and disposed of, cases put to the end of the docket will be called—commencing with the 1st District.

This class of cases will probably be rendered on Monday next.

At 1 P. M. Court adjourned.

CHAPEL HILL AND THE UNITED STATES TROOPS.

The following proceedings, &c., is sufficiently self-explanatory:

At a meeting of citizens, held on the 12th of February, 1870, on motion of Col. Saunders, Jones Watson was called to the Chair and John W. Carr, Esq., requested to act as Secretary. Mr. Andrew Mickle explained the object of the meeting and offered the following resolutions:

WE, the people of Chapel Hill, having heard that the Federal troops, stationed here for the last few months are soon to be removed, and deeming it becoming in us on this occasion thus publicly to express ourselves in regard thereto, do hereby declare,

That the troops now stationed here, by their uniformly polite and orderly behavior have won our regard, and that we shall part from them with regret:

That coming here at a time when our citizens were much excited, and much exasperated by the slanders and misrepresentations of our enemies, and when an account of these misrepresentations and slanders, the actions and motives of our people would very naturally be liable to great misconstruction by strangers, the conduct of the officers has been marked by wisdom, kindness and by fairness, and that in our opinion to this course, on their part, is due in a very great degree, the peaceful solution of the difficulties that surrounded us at the time of their arrival;

That in view of these facts therefore, we do it due to both citizens and soldiers to give this public expression of our kindly feelings towards the troops about to leave us.

That the Chairman of this meeting be requested to communicate a copy of these resolutions to the commanding officer of this post with the request that he publish the same to his command. The resolutions were unanimously adopted, and on motion, the meeting adjourned.

JONES WATSON, Ch'n.

J. W. CARR, Sec'y.

In reply to the note of Mr. Watson enclosing a copy of the above resolutions, the following letter was received:

CHAPEL HILL, N. C., Feb. 12, 1870.

Jones Watson, Esq., Chairman:

SIR—I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of a copy of resolutions, passed at a meeting of the citizens of your village, and their perusal, affords me much gratification and pleasure. I can only assure you in return, that the motives which prompted the action of the citizens of Chapel Hill, are and ever will be highly appreciated by the officers and men of my command. I believe I can safely say for all, that we leave your delightful village with regret.

The request contained in your resolutions will be cheerfully complied with.

I remain very respectfully, &c.,

JNO T. KITTER,

Capt. 8th Inft. Brevt Lt. Col. U. S. A. Com.

For the Sentinel.

PETITION TO THE LEGISLATURE OF NORTH CAROLINA.

The petition of many voters humbly showeth, that while everything the poor man hath, or seemeth to have, is heavily taxed, and the Treasury still empty, there are yet a few things deserving of special taxation left unnoticed. In the words of Simon Luttrell, we would humbly petition:

"Oh, that there might in Raleigh be
A duty on Hypocrisy,
A tax on Humbug, and excise
On solemn plausibilities;
A stamp on every man that 'canted!'
No minute more, if these were granted
Hou'se forward could be raised or wanted;)
But Jenkins, with overflowing chest,
Might soon forgive us all the rest."

And your petitioners will ever pray, &c., as in duty bound. MANY VOTERS.

For the Sentinel.

Burnings are the order of the night, "dwellings, granaries, stables, barns and factories," in ashes, are becoming "item's of news." Strange it is so, but not more strange than burning an officials office a short time before some startling revelations.

PLOWS.—We learn that Mitchell, Allen & Co., of Newbern, N. C., have procurred Steel Cotton Sweeps, made from the original patterns of David Dixon, Esq., of Georgia, they charge $5 for each, when stocked $7.

This firm is selling a large quantity of plows manufactured by themselves. They sell No. A. 6, 10, 11, and 50 plows at 2.50. Would it not be well for farmers to club in each neighborhood, and order together so as to get the freight cheap. Mitchell, Allen & Co., have the agency for the Foster Cotton Planters, and every variety of agricultural implememts. d1m

FRESCO PAINTING.—The attention of the citizens of Raleigh is called to the fact that Messrs. Lankau and Krueger, Fresco Painters, of Baltimore, are now in the city, engaged in frescoing the new market hall, and that a rare oppertunity is now offered those who wish to avail themselves of it, of having their Churches, parlors, libraries, etc., painted in the highest style of art.

Ladies and gentlemen are respectfully invited to visit the Market Hall, where the undersigned may be seen, and examine a specimen of their art.

Respectfully,

Protected by Copy right for 28 years from May 8th 1868.

The above Fluid has been in constant use for upwards of three years, and has sustained its unrivalled reputation, as a brilliant, non-explosive illuminating agent, though subjected to the severest tests. Being universally conceded to be superior to Kerosene or Coal Oil. It makes a better light and more of it, than any other illuminating compound. Soft, clear, steady and uninjurious to the eyes. All that is asked is, a fair and impartial trial.

Among the numerous testimonials received read the following:

PHILADELPHIA, March 15th, 1869.

The undersigned, having witnessed the experiments of Messrs. Hale & Co., with their Combination Burning Fluid, take pleasure in commending it to the public. The various tests to which the Fluid was subjected, was in the highest degree satisfactory. We have no hesitation in pronouncing it to be a safe and brilliant illuminating agent. Its cheapness added to its other good qualities, should insure its introduction into every family in the country, where Kerosene Oil is used.

A NEW DISCOVERY!!
PHALON'S
"VITALIA;"
OR,
Salvation for the Hair.
CLEAR AS WATER!
WITHOUT SEDIMENT!!!
OPEN TO THE LIGHT!!!
For Restoring to Gray Hair its Original Color.

PHALON'S "VITALIA" differs utterly from all the hair coloring preparations heretofore used. It is limpid, sweet smelling, precipitates no muddy or slimy matter, requires no shaking, imparts no stain to the skin. Hold it to the light and it is clear and colorless. It leaves no mark on the scalp; yet it reproduces in gray hair the natural color that time or sickness may have bleached out of it.

☞ Phalon's Vitalia ☜ is for one sole purpose, that of reproducing, with absolute certainty, the natural color of the hair. It is not intended as a daily dressing, nor for removing scurf or dandruff; nor for curing baldness; nor for stimulating the growth of the hair.—These objects may be accomplished after the color has been fixed with the Vitalia, by Phalon's Chemical Hair Invigorator.

THE VITALIA is a harmless and unequaled preparation for the reproduction of the original hue of gray hair, and nothing else. This is accomplished in from two to ten applications, according to the depth of shade required. Sold by all druggists.

"Doctor, I was vaccinated in the hospital.—Before that I had no skin disease. Until I had a bottle of your "Constitution Renovator" sent me by Mr. Hooper, of Lexington, Mo., I suffered tortures of the burning sores. Since I used two bottles I am all well except a small sore on the calf of my left leg, and that is getting well fast."

"This from a lady.—"And now my skin is as clear and fair as a baby's, my complexion, thanks to your "Renovator," is beautiful.

"Yes yes, I may well say such relief was unknown to me before. Enclosed find five dollars for six bottles; two families here want to try it."

And $5,000 ready to pay a loss of No. 34,161, so soon as the party authorized to receive the money appears.

The Company has been well tested throughout the State, as to its promptness in paying her losses, reliability, &c.

DIVIDENDS PAID AT THE END OF THE FIRST YEAR, AND ANNUALLY THEREAFTER.

Its ratio of expense to income is extremely low. This may be seen by reference to the Official Reports for 1868. For example:

EXPENSE ON THE $100 RECEIVED.

KNICKERBOCKER,	$16,54
EQUITABLE,	17,44
NORTH AMERICA,	21,18
BROOKLYN,	21,09
UNIVERSAL,	27,34
JOHN HANCOCK,	18,27
THE NATIONAL,	63,18
THE ÆTNA,	13,41

It has an IMPORTANT NEW FEATURE that has been copy-righted. According to this plan the rates are MUCH LOWER than in any other Company in the world.

Its ratio of Mortality is low. Its rates are very low. Its expenses are very low. Its dividends are large.

It insured more lives in the City of New York in 1868, than any other Company, except one. It issued more Policies in the United States than any other save one. It insured more lives in Canada than any other Company, British or American.

See what the HIGHEST INSURANCE AUTHORITY in this country says. In the June number of the Insurance Times, of New York, the following opinion was expressed:

"If there is any great benefit in mutual association, any great advantage to be derived from scientific organization and a chartered source, tending to mitigate the sufferings, lessen the privations, and add to the peace, security, and happiness of humanity, we are prepared to show that these blessings flow, in all their fullness and purity, from this excellent, powerful, and flourishing Company, the ÆTNA LIFE, of Hartford."

"No institution has brought more prompt, full, and grateful relief to the hearths of the bereaved and desolate, and none has been more uniformly distinguished for the enterprise, wisdom, and equitable liberality with which it has fulfilled the purposes of its formation."

"Its success has been almost unbounded and beyond all precedent. Eight years ago, in 1861, it issued only 589 policies, received an income of seventy-eight thousand dollars, and possessed nett assets summing up to something over two hundred and eighty-one thousand dollars; but last year, 1868, it granted 13,237 new policies, more than any other Company, except the Mutual Life; received an income exceeding six million dollars, and had amassed solid, securely and profitably invested nett assets amounting to over Ten Million Three Hundred and Fifty Thousand Dollars. And this wonderful ratio of growth has been sustained in 1869."
